Letter from the Chief of Staff

Hello and welcome to OSUMUN 2025!

We are so excited to have you attend our OSUMUN 2025 Model UN Conference hosted by The Ohio State University Model UN Team.

Please look over the Delegate Guide as this contains information about campus, recommendations, procedures, rules, and dress code. We cannot wait for you to join us for the best conference on the circuit! In addition to exploring Ohio State's campus, we hope you take time to explore all the exciting restaurants and activities Columbus has to offer. If you have any questions about anything in this Guide or about the conference in general, feel free to reach out to us at ccwaosumun@gmail.com.

Best of Luck,

Cordelia Van der Veer
OSUMUN Chief of Staff

Conference Procedures

Committees will be following standard Model United Nations Parliamentary Procedure

Some common vocabulary to get acquainted with:

1. Motion to open debate: A necessary motion that allows committee session to commence.
2. Moderated Caucus: A series of speeches in favor of or against the set topic. When proposing a motion for a moderated caucus, please be sure to include a specific time allotted for speaking, a specific time for caucus duration, and a topic of debate.
3. Unmoderated Caucus: A motion that pauses formal debate and allows delegates to meet and discuss without a set debate topic. When proposing a motion for an unmoderated caucus, please be sure to include a specific time for the duration of the caucus.
4. Point of Inquiry: Any questions about committee should be raised via point of inquiry.
5. Point of Order: Any questions involving parliamentary procedure should be raised via point of order.
6. Point of Personal Privilege: Any questions regarding personal comfort in committee should be raised via point of personal privilege.
7. Decorum: A motion from the chair that encourages delegates to compose themselves and regain a respectful and orderly debate.

It is recommended to get to committee at least fifteen minutes early as committee sessions will start right on time and roll call will be held immediately.

Technology Rules and Conduct

Technology & Committee policies:

- General Assembly:
  - Technology is not allowed during moderated caucuses and only allowed in unmoderated caucuses.
  - Prewriting is not allowed. Evidence of prewriting will result in disqualification of the delegate(s).
  - Working outside the committee is discouraged. Specific policies will be at the discretion of the chair.
- Crisis:
  - No technology allowed.
  - Working outside the committee is prohibited.
  - Prewriting is not allowed. Evidence of prewriting will result in disqualification of the delegate(s).

AI and ChatGPT

The use of AI tools, such as ChatGPT, is not permitted for writing. Use of generative AI tools will result in disqualification of the delegate. Word of caution: Often these AI tools create incomplete, contradictory, or overly biased summations of other people's work, and have been known to make up citations.

Code of Conduct:

- When in committee, all actions and speeches should remain professional and pertain to the topic of debate.
- Interactions between delegates in and out of committee should remain respectful and kind.
- We expect delegates to adhere to the committee procedures and dress code as outlined in the delegate guide.
- Infringements on the Code of Conduct should be reported to chairs or a member of the Secretariat to be dealt with swiftly.

Non-Discrimination Policy:

- Any actions or language, whether in or out of community, must remain respectful.
- Any sort of discrimination will not be tolerated under any circumstances and any instances will be reported to the Secretariat and to home school advisors to be dealt with properly (see below).
- If a delegate finds something to be violating these policies, they can and should be reported to their Chair of the Committee, the Secretariat, and/or their home school advisor.
- If a delegate finds an OSUMUN staffer to be violating these policies, they should be reported to the Secretariat and their home school advisor.

Accessibility Accommodations:

- We will accommodate any disabilities to the best of our abilities.
- Any specific concerns should be brought to the Secretariat before the conference and/or on the first day of committee to the chair for the best chance of acquiring proper accommodations.
- In terms of religious accommodations, We understand that OSUMUN occurs during the holy month of Ramadan. For anyone who is observing Ramadan, we will have dates & water for anyone breaking their fasts in the evenings.
  - The Interfaith Prayer and Reflection Room (3020C Ohio Union) contains two ablution rooms.

Issues that Arise During Committee:

- At OSUMUN, we believe that all delegates should be treated with respect.
- We understand not all delegates may be comfortable with speaking to their Committee Chair in person, therefore below is a form that can be filled out anonymously. The form will be checked periodically throughout the weekend.

Dress Code:

- Business Attire is appreciated.
- Clothing should remain professional in committee.
- For delegates seeking to dress in Western Business Attire; standard WBA includes, but is not limited to, the following:
  - Collared shirts
  - Turtlenecks & sweaters
  - Suits & jackets
  - Ties, bowties, or scarves
  - Dress slacks & skirts
  - Formal shoes (flats, loafers, heels, etc.)
- Any questions about dress code or what is considered Business Attire should be directed to home school advisors and/or the OSUMUN Secretariat.
- For Sunday, March 23: business casual and/or home school MUN merch is allowed.
